

To Kill A Mockingbird – EAE3U

Journal Responses - Evaluation

The purpose of these journal responses is to get you thinking about the characters, events, themes and ideas in this novel.

Each response must:

- Show thoughtful reflection and analysis of the topic or question;
- Provide support from the novel using direct or indirect quotations, including page numbers;
- For questions in italics, also draw from your opinions and experiences;
- Be a minimum of ten lines typed, size 12, font Times New Roman.

Part 1 – Chapters 1-11

1. How is school different in the book for the children of Maycomb County from what it is today? Do you believe the educational system has made positive progress? Discuss.
2. How does Boo Radley touch the lives of the Finch children?
3. Discuss the role of Atticus as a father.